

Sagra dell' asparago di montagna, May 1

In the castle of Avacelli this tasty food is served in all flavors: inimitable with tagliatelle and with omelette.

Festa del patrono san Medardo, June 8

Arcevia is the only municipality in Italy to have the patron Saint Medardo, French bishop having proverbial goodness. The religious festivity is accompanied, in the nearest Sunday, by the Fiera di S. Medardo, cheered by the stands full of sweets, clothes and toys.

Festa dell'Uva, last weekend of September

This is the traditional festive event in the town center of Arcevia since 1930. The entire town is populated by food stands with typical dishes and products, often hosted in the ancient and picturesque wineries. Concerts, craftsmen and artists fill the streets and, on Sunday, the festival culminates with the parade of allegorical floats in paper and the final fireworks.

Festa d'autunno, november

The beautiful castle of Piticchio, in the weekend close to the festivity of San Martino (November 11), opens all its wineries to offer the culinary delicacies of the area, while in the small streets and squares, minstrels perform, and are distributed chestnuts and mulled wine.