

Festa della Cipolla, first weekend of September

Each year in the historic center of Castelleone di Suasa is celebrated the most characteristic and "sweet" product of this area: the onion. During the event are developed conventions dedicated to food, concerts, games, exhibitions and workshops of taste, which in recent years are having a growing success. But the attention is focused mainly on tasting this product "in all the sauces".