

Festa del Patrono, Tuesday of Easter

The patron saint of Cerreto d'Esi is the Madonna del Rosario. The feast is celebrated with religious function that is accompanied by other more profane celebrations, typical of the Easter period as the Festa della Ciambella.

Festa di S. Leopardo, the first Sunday of August

After the traditional mass in the little church at the foot of the mountains, the celebration ends with a reception with local products in a rural context.

Festa dell'Uva, the penultimate week of September

Since 1929 this is the traditional event that combines wine and food and fun with the promotion of Vernaccia Cerretana and local wine production.
