

San Marti' all'Angeli, the weekend close to the day of San Martino

The festival takes place in the days around 11 November, day of San Martino, which was celebrated in Mergo with special solemnity, at least since the seventeenth century.

Today, the event aims to discover the customs and costumes of the campaign of the last century through dances, folklore, traditional songs, food and wine.

The festival involves the town center, with its characteristics wineries derived in the underground cellars of houses and of the castle walls, and the little town of Angeli, offering food stands and cultural initiatives.
